Subject: Transmission of acts based on the Hague Convention of November 15, 1965 on the service abroad of judicial and extra-judicial acts in civil and commercial matters

Reference text: - Art. 688-1 et seq. of the Code of Civil Procedure

Pursuant to the Hague Convention of November 15, 1965, please find enclosed a request for service of a judicial or extra-judicial act for an addressee residing in France.

Thank you for proceeding as soon as possible with the simple delivery of this request in keeping with the rules set out below.

- ☛ The service occurs by manual delivery of the document.
- ☛ The documents cannot be served by a court bailiff.
- ☛ The documents have to be served whatever the deadlines of date of appearance mentioned in the document even if they seem exceeded.
- ☛ When served by the services of the National Police or the National Gendarmerie, there is no need to hear the person to whom the document is serviced. It is preferable to fill out the certificate attached hereto (Annex 1) that has to take note and set forth the diligence carried out at the time of the delivery. Otherwise, a process-verbal of the delivery of the document can also be drawn up. In that case, only articles 688-1 et seq. of the Code of Criminal Procedure may be cited.

- ☞ Prior to the delivery, the addressee of the document has to be informed of his/her right to refuse it, namely in the event that the document is in a language unknown to him/her (Art. 688-1 of the Code of Civil Procedure). The warning given is noted in the certificate and in the receipt provided to the addressee.
- ☞ A receipt certifying the date and conditions of the delivery has to be provided to the addressee. A model of the receipt is attached to this transmittance (Annex 2).
- ☞ It shall be up to the Public Prosecutor to enter the certificate provided for in Article 6 of the Convention (Annex 3) and to return it directly to the foreign requesting authority whose address is stated on the request form.
